

University of Akron – Counseling and Testing Center
Training Programs During the Pandemic
Updated: 9/8/2021

The Counseling and Testing Center (CTC) recognizes that the COVID-19 pandemic is unique; requiring flexibility and balance. All changes to our services, policies, and procedures were made with the ethical care of our clients in mind. Decisions about our training programs have been made with consideration of the safety and training needs of our trainees and the policies of the University of Akron.

Due to university, state and federal guidelines, the CTC moved back to on campus services beginning July 1, 2021. Currently
