

R.C. 3345.0214(A) Report Submitted by The University of Akron

(1) The University of Akron has complied and/or previously complied with R.C. 3345.0212*

The University of Akron has developed and distributed materials, programs, and policies, regulations, and duties of the institution regarding campus to individuals responsible for the education of students.

The University of Akron has complied with R.C. 3345.0213 by taking the following actions:

The University of Akron does not limit Campus Community speech to "free speech zones" or designate Outdoor Areas of Campuses where expressive activities are permitted.

The University of Akron has published criteria for view-point and content-neutral manner restrictions that provide for ample alternative means for the expression of ideas and the distribution of materials.

The University of Akron provides the following description of any barriers to or incidents of discrimination or harassment based on race, ethnicity, gender, or sexual orientation:

- There have been no reported barriers to or incidents of disruption of free expression occurring on campus. There have been no attempts to block or prohibit speakers. There have been no investigations of any students or student groups on the basis of expression.

* All terms used in this report conform to the definitions provided in ORC 3345.0211